

S. KANN, SONS & COMPANY

The Busy Corner. Eighth and Market Space.

NOW is the time for persons living out of the city to order by mail. We will furnish samples on receipt of letter and fill all replies with promptness and despatch. If your purchase is $5 or more, and you live within a radius of 100 miles, we'll deliver it free.

Our One-day Special!

And it is a good one—50 pieces of yard-wide fine Bleached Muslin, fully as heavy as Fruit of the Loom, but not quite as fine—we are selling this cotton every day at 7½¢ per yard—as a special, 10 yards to each customer at... 47¢

Being sold for one day, it will be impossible for us to fill mail or C. O. D. orders.

Always Selling, So Always Buying.

We bought 100 pieces of the finest All-silk 24-inch Crepe de Chine, worth $1.25 a yard, to sell for 79¢. This beautiful silk cloth will be more in favor this season than it has been for several years back. No looming has such wearing qualities, no silk has such sheen; nothing that we can offer in this line that will give such unlimited satisfaction as this, the most beautiful of all silks. The line of colors is the most complete for street and evening wear. The following is the roster of shades:

Old Rose, Baby Blue, Pink, four shades of Grey, three shades of Tan, four shades of Helios, Canary, Automobile, Red, Marine, and Navy Blue, White, Cream, and beautiful Crow Blacks—this offering is one of unusual magnitude, and is worthy the attention of every woman in Washington—will be on sale tomorrow morning in our Silk Department at, per yard 79¢

Guaranteed to be worth $1.25.

Centre Bargain Table—First Floor.

50 cartons of 20-inch Silk-faced Black Velvet—this is one particular grade which is known as $1 quality from Maine to Texas, but being fortunate enough to close this little lot with a large importer, who always give us first chance, we are able to sell you these goods, at per yard 79¢

Dress Goods, Both Black and Colored.

We must condense this stock or make sacrifices in order to make room for our big display of Holiday novelties which will be placed on sale within the next ten days. A sacrifice of profit is more preferable than putting goods in storage—if you can realize bargains, which we are sure you can, according to the many times you have come to our rescue when we made honest appeals, we feel sure that you'll help us to unload a great many of the goods advertised for this coming week.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Warren Held for the Grand Jury.
United States Commissioner Samuel C. Mills yesterday held James Warren for the action of the grand jury on a charge of perjury. He is said to have made false affidavits in connection with a pension case.

An Ice Chest Robbed.
Fritz Reuter, proprietor of the hotel at Four-and-a-half Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, had his ice chest opened by thieves early Saturday morning and a leg of lamb, two ducks, and other articles are missing.

Death From Natural Causes.
The Coroner yesterday issued a certificate of death from natural causes in the case of James Noonan, the carpenter, who died yesterday afternoon of cerebral hemorrhage. The body was removed to the home of the deceased, 2428 N Street northwest.

Money and Railroad Tickets Stolen.
Earnest Baker, of 322 Indiana Avenue, has notified the police that some time between 10 o'clock Friday night and 6 o'clock Saturday morning, his room was entered and $300 and a railroad ticket from Quantico to Fredericksburg were stolen from his trunks pocket.

Forfeited Their Collateral.
Samuel Harris and Nathaniel Lee, for disorderly conduct; Samuel Dace, for throwing stones; John Ducey, for refusing to pay back hire; John Day, for indecent exposure, and Monroe Profit, for cruelty to animals, forfeited collateral in the Police Court yesterday.

A Child Charged With Larceny.
Clarence Hill, a child who could scarcely look over the rail, was before Judge Kimball yesterday, charged with the larceny of a bicycle, valued at $12, from Ida McVie. The case was postponed until Tuesday, and in the mean time Clarence will be cared for at the House of Detention.

Vagrants Sent to the Workhouse.
There was a long line of vagrants in the Police Court yesterday, and every one of them was given an order for a new suit of clothes, with the stripes crossways, and made full fledged members of the chain gang for terms varying from 24 hours to six months. George Bender, Paul Brown, John Cornford, Lorenzo Ball, Alonso Francis, John P. Monna, Martha Scott, Frank Wells, and Henry Wilson, made up the list.

Will of William H. Williams.
By the terms of the will of William Hamilton Williams, dated April 10 last and filed yesterday for probate, he leaves his entire estate, with the exception of $100, to his wife, May Elizabeth Williams. The estate consists of a farm known as "Mount Pleasant," near Port Tobacco, and certain funds on deposit with the American Security and Trust Company. The $100 referred to is left to Marguerite Helena Dement, a friend of the testator's wife.

The Death Record.
The following deaths for twenty-four hours were reported at the Health Department up to noon yesterday: William Easton, 84 years; Elizabeth H. Smith, 82 years; Moses Spiegel, 74 years; Katherine Boyle, 70 years; Mollie Robinson, 54 years; Pat J. Buckle, 44 years; Henry Ranker, 38 years; Maudie M. Carpenter, 20 years; Elsa McGonigley, 5 years; Blanche Cusick, 10 days; infant of Annie Mauser, 1 hour.

Valuable Jewelry Stolen.
The house of Mrs. Ward B. Wheeler, 1739 Corcoran Street, was entered some time Friday night and over $500 worth of jewelry was stolen. Among the articles were a turquoise ring surrounded with twenty-three diamonds, valued at $200; a ring set with pearls and diamonds, valued at $125, and a handsome oval ring, with diamonds surrounding the central stone.

Aid for the Blind.
The Aid Association for the Blind of the District of Columbia desires that all its friends should contribute as liberally as possible supplies of clothing, provisions, and household goods for Thanksgiving Day. It is the hope of the management that a generous response will be made to the appeal for aid which has appeared in the daily newspapers. Such gifts will be received at the Home for the Blind, 915 E Street northeast, any day during the present week.

Druggists' Cases Nolle Prossed.
The cases against the following druggists, charged with selling unlicensed apothecaries, who having failed to renew their licenses at the proper time, were nolle prossed yesterday as the parties proved that they had now complied with the law: Eugene E. Giesell, 109 New York Avenue; William H. Davis, 209 Eleventh Street northwest; Albert T. Henderson, 3124 Fourteenth Street northwest; and J. Walter McDonald, 1550 North Capitol Street.

Drunkennes and Cruelty Charged.
Susan C. Harnes yesterday, through her attorney, Harry G. Kimball, filed suit against her husband, William H. Harnes, for divorce, on the ground of habitual drunkenness and cruelty. She also alleges that in 1895 her husband attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Since that time Mr. Harnes states her husband has frequently made violent demonstrations toward her with a knife and a razor. She also declares that he abuses her in vile and obscene language. She asks the court to restrain him from interfering with her or threatening her.

Myers Seeks Release From Jail.
Solomon Myers yesterday filed a petition for habeas corpus, with a view of securing his release from the District Jail. The petitioner states that he was found guilty in the Police Court of assault and was sentenced by Judge Kimball to 30 days in jail. He alleges that the proceedings which resulted in his conviction are unconstitutional and void, and Justice Bradley ordered that the writ issue, and the matter will come up for hearing tomorrow in Circuit Court No. 2.

Mount Vernon and Arlington.
Only three hours are necessary for the entire trip to Mt. Vernon, made on the electric trains of the Washington, Alexandria, and Mt. Vernon railway, for the trains make the trip in either direction in fifty minutes, and one hour is ample time in which to visit all the interesting features of the mansion and of the estate. Electric trains leave the station, Thirteenth and-a-half Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, every hour from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., for Mt. Vernon. This line extends along the Virginia and Potomac rivers through the city of Alexandria, and runs through the entire estate now owned by General Washington. Round-trip tickets to Mt. Vernon, allowing stop-over privileges at Alexandria and at Arlington, are sold at reduced rates. The trains leave the station about every forty-five minutes for Alexandria and the national cemetery.

Office Rooms—Low Rent.
Some first-class office rooms for rent in Hutchins Building, corner Tenth and D streets north-west. Elevator, steam heat, electricity, and very low rent.

Return to Baltimore and Return via B. & O.
Saturday and Sunday, November 24 and 25.

USE A GAS HEATER.
Perhaps the furnace or the kerosene does not distribute enough heat, or the room is too cold. BUY A GAS HEATER and remedy the trouble. We have heaters wherever you wish as long as you wish. See us about the heater. We're the most complete line in the city.
